

Please let XM radio compete with local radio. It is the only way I can travel and get clear station at all times. It lets me know what I am getting into before I enter a town and might want to go a different route.